++ Valid for broadcast between 0600 and 1800

Headline:
Heavy rain clearing to sunshine and showers.

Today:
A band of rain, heavy at times, will move across the region through the morning. Turning brighter by the afternoon, though scattered showers developing, some heavy with hail and thunder. Staying breezy, particularly towards the coast and feeling rather cool. Maximum temperature 20 deg C (68 deg F).

Tonight:
Most of the daytime showers ease leaving a drier evening for many. However, overnight the shower risk increases once again, particularly across northern parts of the region. Minimum temperature 13 deg C (55 deg F).

Sunday:
A continued risk of showers, some of which may become heavy and thundery. Some sunny spells developing in between the showers. Remaining blustery, particularly around the coast. Maximum temperature 19 deg C (66 deg F).

Outlook for Monday to Wednesday:
An unsettled start to next week with further showers on Monday and Tuesday with a risk of thunder. Many areas drier on Wednesday and winds become lighter.
